This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. 220 Voyage to the South Sea in H. M. ship the Bounty, commanded by Captain Bligh, and account of the Mutiny and subsequent voyage of the Capt. to Timor, in the East Indies, 4to, plates, charts, &c., calf, gilt, Lond., 1792

"Awake, bold Bligh, the Foe is at the gate.
Awake,—awake—alas, it is too late,
Fiercely beside thy cot the mutineer
Stands, and proclaims the reign of rage and fear."
Lord Byron. The Island.

221 Sir John Franklin's Narrative of a Journey to the Shores of the Polar Sea, 1819-22, 4to, 1823. Second Expedition to do, 1825, '27, 4to., 1828. Beautiful copy in 2 vols. 4to., best Edition, splendid plates by Finden, maps, charts, &c., half-calf, gilt, very rare, Lond.

"The unstudied and seaman-like simplicity of the style is not the least of its merits, and the illustrations and embellishments are of a very superior kind." Quarterly Review.

222 Journal or Historical account of the Life, Travels, and Sufferings of George Fox, fol., best Edition, calf, gilt, Lond., 1765

Fox visited the American Colonies in 1671,—"I have read quite through the ponderous folio of George Fox, he is a great spiritual man, and I feel very much obliged by your procuring me the loan of it. Pray how may I return it to Ipswich. I fear to send such a treasure by a stage coach."
Charles Lamb to Bernard Barton.

223 The Charter of the Province of Massachusetts Bay, granted by King William and Queen Mary, Boston, 1726; Acts and Laws passed by the Great General Court or Assembly of Massachusetts Bay, Boston, 1726, in 1 vol. fol. fine copy cf. gt. very rare.

The table of contents extends only to page 347, the subsequent Laws appear to have been added as passed, from time to time.

224 Views of the Coasts, Islands, and Countries within the limits of the South Sea Company, and account of the Settlements from the River Aranoco to Terra del Fuego, &c., 8vo., maps, by Herman Moll, calf, gilt, Lond., 1711

225 A Cruising Voyage Round the World in 1708-'11, the taking of the Acapulco ship, and account of Alex. Selkirk's living alone for four years on an island, &c., by Captain Wood Rogers, 8vo. maps and plates, best Edition, calf, gilt, Lond., 1726

Dampier went as Pilot to Rogers on this Voyage, the last mention that occurs of him.

226 New Travels in the United States of America, by J. P. Brissot, 8vo., 1794. Commerce of America with Europe, &c., with the Life of Brissot (the Girondin, gullotined in 1793,) 2 vols. 8vo. calf, gilt, Lond., 1794

227 New Discovery of a Vast Country in America, extending above 4000 miles between New France and New Mexico, &c., by L. Hennepin, and with an account of the Discoveries of M. Joliet and Father Marquette, 8vo. map and plates, including the first View of the Falls of Niagara, hf calf, gilt, Lond., 1698

Father Hennepin was commissioned by La Salle to explore the upper course of the Mississippi to its source, and ranks as discoverer of the immense region watered by that River. His account of the Indian tribes is very valuable.

228 Official Letters to the Am. Congress by General Washington, written during the War, 2 vols. 8vo, 1795. Epistles Domestic, Confidential and Special, from General Washington, with his Orders, Instructions, &c., never before printed, 8vo. 1796, 3 vols. calf, gilt, Lond.

The third volume is curious as containing a number of spurious Letters, pointed out by Washington himself; they are said to be written by a Mr. V———, a young Episcopal clergyman from New York.—Rich.

229 Journal of Travels through the N. W. Regions of the United States from Detroit to the source of the Mississippi, by H. R. Schoolcraft, 8vo. map and plates, hf calf, gilt, scarce, Albany, 1812

231 General History of the British Empire in America and the West Indies, by Mr. Wynne, 2 vols. 8vo. calf, gilt, Lond., 1776

"In the author's own remarks he appears as a man of abilities, of knowledge of the world, of humanity and of candor."—Monthly Review.

232 Voyage round the World in 1803–6, by Capt. Von Krusenstiern Commander of the Russian Expedition of Discovery, translated by Hoppner, 2 vols. in 1, colored plates, maps, &c., hf. cf. gt. Lond., 1813

Contains more valuable matter relating to Japan and the adjacent Seas, than any other Voyage of Discovery.

233 The Royal Commentaries of Peru. The history and original of their Incas or Kings, and the manner in which that New World was conquered by the Spaniards, by the Inca Garcilasso de la Vega, translated by Sir Paul Rycaut, fol., plates, fine copy, cf. gt. Lond., 1688

Will always be the chief authority for the History and Conquest of Peru; as a descendant of the ancient Princes, his knowledge is peculiarly minute relative to the Religion, Government, Customs and Manners of the ancient inhabitants.—Robertson.

234 Discourse touching the Spanish Monarchy in the Old and New World, by Compenella small 4to., cf. gt., very rare Historical tract, Lond., 1654

235 Historical account of Guinea and Inquiry into the Rise and Progress of the American Slave Trade, by Anthony Benezet, of Penn. 8vo. rare, cf. gt. Lond., 1788

The writings of this distinguished philanthropist first awakened the attention of Clarkson and Wilberforce to the subject of Slave Trade.

236 Capt. Geo. Shelvocke's Voyage round the World, by the way of the Great South Sea, and Shipwreck on the Isle of Juan Fernandez, 8vo. map and plates, cf. gt. Lond. 1757

"The soil about Puerto Seguro (in California), is a rich black mould which, as you turn it up fresh to the sun, appears as if intermingled with gold dust. We endeavored to wash the earth from some of it, and the more we did it the more it appeared like gold. But in order to be further satisfied, I brought away some of it, which we lost in our confusions in China." Page 400.

237 Historical Account of the European Settlements in America. The History and Discovery, and the manners and customs of the original inhabitants, 2 vols. 8vo. maps, cf. gt. Lond., 1770

No doubt remains as to the authorship of this book, though not included in Burke's Works, it was unquestionably written by him. This original receipt for the copy-right money from Dodsley, has lately been published.

238 Depon's (F.) Voyage a la partie Orientale dela Terre Firme, Venezuela, Maracaibo, La Guiane Espagnole, &c., fait en 1801–4, 3 vols. 8vo. maps, &c. hf. cf. gt. Paris, 1806

The most important work on what were then the immense French Possessions in America. The author is the most eminent among Missionary travellers; he made what may be called the grand tour of interior America, proceeding up the St. Lawrence, through the lakes, and down the Mississippi, to New Orleans, collecting materials for the best published account of the country, and the institutions and characters of the Indian Tribes.—Murray.

735 The Geographical and Historical Dictionary of America and the West Indies, translated from Don Antonio de Alcedo, by G. A. Thompson, with large additions, 5 vols. 4to. cf. neat. Lond., 1812

"The additions of the translator from late travels and authentic sources of information, have given his work a great superiority over the original."

736 Mœurs des Sauvages Ameriquains comparees aux Mœurs des Premier temps, par Le Pere Lafitau, 2 vols. 4to. 41 fine plates, cf. gilt, rare, Paris, 1829

It contains a great detail of the manners, customs, and religion of the savages of America, particularly those of Canada and New York, the author having been a Missionary among the Iroquois, consequently his work is the most exact we have on that subject.—Charlevoix.

737 Present State of the European Settlements on the Mississippi, and Geographical Description of that River, by Capt. Philip Pittman, illustrated with plans and draughts, 4to. cf. fine maps, Lond. 1770

"Very rare. The author resided several years in the countries he describes and was employed in surveying and exploring their interior parts. It is the first detailed account in English, of the immense region to which it relates."—Rich.

738 Case of the Uncompensated American Loyalists, as laid before Parliament, &c., 4to. hf. mor., rare and curious many names from New York appear in the list of claimants, Lond., 1816

739 Memoir Sur le Collection des Voyages de De Bry et de Thevenot, par Camus, 4to. hf. cf. Paris, 1802

Full of information respecting the bibliography of the early voyages to America.

740 CLAVIGERO'S MEXICO. Storia Antica del Messico, cavata da migliori storici Spagnuoli, e da MSS, e dalle pitture antiche degli Indiani, dell Abbate D. F. S. Clavigero. 4 vols. small folio, maps and plates, half vellum, edges uncut, fine copy, rare. Ceserea, 1780

Clavigero was born at Vera Cruz, and remained in America till the banishment of the Jesuits from Mexico in 1767, when he retired to Bologna, and undertook this important work, which was received by the learned of Europe with great applause. Though so well known by translations, the original work in Italian is very scarce, and has many advantages over any other copy.

741 Histoire du Paraguay par le Pere P. F. de Charlevoix. 3 vols. 4to. maps, &c. old calf gilt, fine copy. Paris, 1756

Besides an account of the Natural Productions and aborigines of this country, Charlevoix's history is particularly interesting from the account it gives of the celebrated Jesuit establishments of Paraguay.

742 History of the Campaign of 1780 and '81 in the Southern Provinces of America, by Col. Tarleton, commandant of the late British Legion. 4to. maps and military plans, calf gilt. Lond., 1787

743 HERRERA'S HISTORY. Historia General de los hechos de los Castellanos en las islas i tierra firme del Mar Oceano, escrita por Antonio de Herrera. 5 vols. folió in 3 Best edition with copious Index, &c., edited by Barcia, rare and valuable, cf., gilt, Madrid, 1730

744 Origen de los Indios del Nuevo Mundo, e Indias Occidentales, por A. P. Gregorio Garcia. Folio, fine large paper copy, rare, half calf. Madrid, 1728

"This treatise on the origin of the Americans, is a work of vast erudition." Clavigero. "It was edited by Barcia, and some copies were printed on large paper.—Rich."

745 RAMUSIO'S COLLECTION OF VOYAGES. Navigationi et Viaggi raccolto gia da M. Gio. Battista Ramusio. 3 vols. folio, maps and cuts, hlf. vellum. Venice, 1556

"John Baptista Ramusio (a man who to the dexterity of a diplomatist added the hardihood of an adventurer, and the taste of a scholar), served the Republic of Venice 43 years, and retired into privacy to profit himself of his past experience, and collect his notices of past travel; a precious collection still regarded by geographers as one of the most important ever made." The third volume is exclusively American, and contains the original accounts of Vespucius, Verazzani (the discoverer of New York), Cabeca di Vaca, and many others not otherwise extant.

746 Purchas, his Pilgrimage, or Relations of the World, and the Religions of all ages and places discovered from the creation unto this present. Folio, fine copy, newly bound. Lond., 1617

Inrended by the author to be a digest, &c. of the information contained in his collection of Voyages, of which it forms the 5th volume; but is also a complete and separate work.

747 The Natural and Civil History of the French Dominions in North and South America, Canada and Louisiana, St. Domingo, Martinique, Guadaloupe, Cayenne, &c. Illustrated by maps and plans of the principal places by T. Jeffreys. folio. fine copy in calf, 18 large maps, &c, Lond., 1760

748 KERR'S VOYAGES AND TRAVELS. General History and Collection of Voyages and Travels, arranged in systematic order, forming a complete history of the origin and progress of discovery, navigation and commerce from the earliest ages, by Robert Kerr. 18 vols. 8vo. fine set, new in half calf gilt, maps and charts. Edinb., 1811–'24

The distinguishing feature of Kerr's Collection, is, that it is devoted to Voyages and Travels of discovery, wherein the boundaries of geographical knowledge were enlarged. It consequently contains all the early expeditions to America and the Pacific in extenso. The 18th volume is a history of the progress of Maritime and Inland Discovery, with a bibliographical catalogue of Voyages and Travels, by Wm. Stevenson. It is a work of great value and being published at a later time is frequently wanted.

749 Discourse of Voyages into the East and West Indies, by John Huyghen Van Linschoten, written in the Dutch Tongue. plates. Black Letter. fol., calf gilt. Lond., 1598

The only English translation of Linschoten, exceedingly rare. A very fine copy, but wanting some of the maps (which are rarely if ever found complete). Linschoten accompanied the Dutch Expedition of Barentz to Nova Zembla, &c., and visited America, &c.

750 A Lot of rare and curious early maps of the Colonies, &c., including Ratzer's map of New York City. Sauthier's do. of New York State. De Witt's do. do. on 6 sheets. Plans of Philad., &c. &c. in sheets. Particulars at the time of sale.

Also the Monuments of New Spain, by M. Dupaix, illustrated by upwards of one thousand elaborate and highly interesting plates, accurately copied from the originals, by A. Aglio. 9 vols. impl. folio, hf. morocco, gilt edges originally pub. at 140*l. unbound.*

"This work in its magnificence recalls to mind the patronage of crowned heads, and the splendor of the princely patrons of literature. It has no taint about it of author or bookseller—it comes in the astounding form of nine volumes, imperial folio! and the cost of producing the whole will exceed fifty or perhaps sixty thousand pounds!"—Athenæum.

752 Ogilby's America. America, being the latest and most accurate description of the New World, &c. collected from the most authentic Authors, and adorned with maps and sculptures, by John Ogilby, his Majesty's Cosmographer. fol. fine copy in calf gilt. Lond., 1671

This grand old work contains 57 folding plates and maps, exclusive of a much greater number inserted in the text, among which is the earliest view of "Niew Amsterdam," (New York).

The greatest treasures of most of the existing collections in Europe date from the dispersal of the Orleans Gallery, which was unquestionably the finest ever brought together. Its history is well known, the entire collection was sent to England, as security for money advanced to the Duke (Egalité); and it was afterwards purchased by Lords Stafford, Carlisle, and Bridgewater, who after making a selection, disposed of the remainder at auction.

THE END.
